The Greeting

The president greets the people

from God our Father
and the Lord Jesus Christ
be with you.

and also with you.

cf 1 Timothy 1.2

Introduction

The president introduces the celebration using these or other appropriate words

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, during Lent we have been preparing by works of love and self-sacrifice for the celebration of our Lord's death and resurrection. Today we come together to begin this solemn celebration in union with the Church throughout the world. Christ enters his own city to complete his work as our Saviour, to suffer, to die, and to rise again. Let us go with him in faith and love, so that, united with him in his sufferings, we may share his risen life.

The people hold up their palms while this prayer is said by the president

God our Saviour, whose Son Jesus Christ entered Jerusalem as Messiah to suffer and to die;
let these palms be for us signs of his victory and grant that we who bear them in his name
may ever hail him as our King,
and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life;
who lives and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen

Invitation to Confession

Remain Standing

Come to me, all who labour and are heavy laden,
 and I will give you rest.

God shows his love for us in that,
 while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Let us then show our love for him
 by confessing our sins in penitence and faith.

Show mercy on us loving Father. We have sinned against you, please make us a-new. In your love and your grace you forgive us.

Lord have mercy,
Lord have mercy,
Lord have mercy.

Look not on our failings, Lord Jesus. We have sinned against, please make us a-new. By your life and your death you redeem us.

Christ have mercy,
Christ have mercy,
Christ have mercy.

Come fill our hearts Holy Spirit. We have sinned against you, please make us a-new. Forgive us and heal us and save us.

Let us pray for a closer union with Christ in his suffering and in his glory.

hailed by the crowd as Messiah:

that we may be found beside you
on the way of the cross,
which is the path of glory. Amen

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,

born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,

was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.

On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,

and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

the holy catholic Church,

the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,

the resurrection of the body,

and the life everlasting. Amen

Prayers of Intercession

Please Kneel or Sit

Let us bring to the Father our prayers of intercession through Christ who gave himself for the life of the world. For forgiveness for the many times we have denied Jesus, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For grace to seek out those habits of sin which mean spiritual death, and by prayer and self-discipline to overcome them, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For Christian people, that through the suffering of disunity there may grow a rich union in Christ, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who make laws, interpret them, and administer them, that our common life may be ordered in justice and mercy, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who still make Jerusalem a battleground, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who have the courage and honesty to work openly for justice and peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those in the darkness and agony of isolation, that they may find support and encouragement, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who, weighed down with hardship, failure, sorrow or sickness may feel that God is far from them, feel his merciful love and compassion especially...

let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who are tempted to give up the way of the cross, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For those who have died, especially...

That we, with those who have died in faith, may find mercy in the day of Christ,

let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Holy God,
holy and strong,
holy and immortal,
have mercy upon us.

The Liturgy of the Sacrament

The Peace

Please stand

Once we were far off, but now in union with Christ Jesus we have been brought near through the shedding of Christ's blood,
for he is our peace.

cf Ephesians 2.13

The peace of the Lord be always with you
and also with you.

Let us offer one another a sign of peace.

Preparation of the Table

Taking of the Bread and Wine

The president takes the bread and wine and says:

Jesus, true vine and bread of life,
ever giving yourself that the world might live,
let us share your death and passion:
make us perfect in your love. Amen.

The president now washes her/his hands and privately says a prayer of benediction to ensure that they are cleansed from the sin of the world and worthy to be used in God's service at the Altar.

Pray, my brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands,
for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church. Amen

The Eucharistic Prayer

Remain Standing

The Lord is here.

His Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give thanks and praise.

The president praises God for his mighty acts and all respond

It is indeed right and just,
our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For as the time of his passion and resurrection draws near the whole world is called to acknowledge his hidden majesty.
 The power of the life-giving cross reveals the judgement that has come upon the world and the triumph of Christ crucified.
 He is the victim who dies no more,
 the Lamb once slain, who lives for ever,
 our advocate in heaven to plead our cause,
 exalting us there to join with angels and archangels,
 for ever praising you and singing:

Setting: Schubert Mass

Please Sit or Kneel

Accept our praises, heavenly Father,
through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ,
and as we follow his example and obey his command,
grant that by the power of your Holy Spirit
these gifts of bread and wine
may be to us his body and his blood;

who, in the same night that he was betrayed,
took bread and gave you thanks;
he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

To you be glory and praise for ever.

In the same way, after supper
he took the cup and gave you thanks;
he gave it to them, saying:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it,
in remembrance of me.

To you be glory and praise for ever.

Therefore, heavenly Father,
we remember his offering of himself
made once for all upon the cross;
we proclaim his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension;
we look for the coming of your kingdom,
and with this bread and this cup
we make the memorial of Christ your Son our Lord.

Lord, by your cross and resurrection
you have set us free.

You are the Saviour of the world.

Accept through him, our great high priest,
 this our sacrifice of thanks and praise,
 and as we eat and drink these holy gifts
 in the presence of your divine majesty,
 renew us by your Spirit,
 inspire us with your love
 and unite us in the body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

To you be glory and praise for ever.

Through him, and with him, and in him,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 with all who stand before you in earth and heaven,
 we worship you, Father almighty,
 in songs of everlasting praise:

Blessing and honour and glory and power
 be yours for ever and ever. Amen

The holy gifts are elevated towards heaven one final time, just as heaven is brought closer to earth through our prayer and petition. God transforms these gifts, making them Christ's Body and Blood for us. At this moment the veil between heaven and earth is at its thinnest. Holiness is in our midst. We make the sign of the cross!

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come;
 thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
 but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen

Breaking of the Bread

Remain Seated

Every time we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Agnus Dei

Give us your peace.

Lamb of God

Giving of Communion

The president says the invitation to communion

Jesus is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.
 Blessed are those who are called to his supper.
Lord, I am not worthy to receive you,
but only say the word, and I shall be healed.

Most merciful Lord, your love compels us to come in.
 Our hands were unclean,
 our hearts were unprepared;
 we were not fit even to eat the crumbs from under your table.
 But you, Lord, are the God of our salvation,
 and share your bread with sinners.
 So cleanse and feed us
 with the precious body and blood of your Son,
 that he may live in us and we in him;
 and that we, with the whole company of Christ,
 may sit and eat in your kingdom. Amen

The president and people receive communion.

We invite Christians of all denominations to join us in receiving God's holy gifts. If you are unable to get to the Altar, please make our stewards aware and they shall ask the priest to come to you. God opens his arms to everyone at his holy table.
